

Veronique Bamps

Tiffany & Co.

Necklace

Circa: Circa 1910

Necklace in 14 k yellow gold and platinum set with moonstones surrounded on each side with one diamond and two sapphires, Tiffany & Co circa 1910

L : 43 cm

Artist description:

Charles Lewis Tiffany and John Young founded Tiffany & Co. in New York in 1837. Tiffany's tireless search for one of a kind objects charmed and fascinated the wealthy of New York from the outset. Joined by his son Louis Comfort Tiffany, Tiffany & Co. were to become America's pre-eminent house of design and the world's premier jeweller at the end of the Nineteenth Century. By 1867 Tiffany & Co. were recognised globally, winning the highly coveted Award of Merit at the Paris Exposition Universelle in 1867. This was the first time an American company had been recognized by a European jury.